1. Introduction

MAN Coin is a revolutionary blockchain-based cryptocurrency designed to disrupt the film financing ecosystem. By leveraging decentralization, MAN Coin allows filmmakers to secure funding directly from a global community of investors while providing them with transparent revenue-sharing mechanisms.

2. Market Opportunity

The global film industry is valued at over $95 billion, yet independent filmmakers struggle to obtain funding. MAN Coin bridges this gap, enabling direct investments without traditional intermediaries.

3. Vision & Mission

Vision: To create a transparent, decentralized ecosystem that democratizes film funding.

Mission: To empower filmmakers, provide investors with high-yield opportunities, and build a sustainable film-financing model through blockchain technology.

4. How MAN Coin Works

Filmmakers submit proposals on the MAN Coin platform.

Investors purchase tokens and fund projects.

Film profits are shared with investors via smart contracts.

MAN Coin is tradable on crypto exchanges, ensuring liquidity.

5. Tokenomics & Distribution

- Total Supply: 1,000,000,000 MAN Coins
- Initial Price: $0.010 per MAN Coin
